4. Comment. [redacted] the trains between Frankfurt/Oder and Altsengrabow carried troops or supply goods such as ammunition. [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] 25X1
5. Comment. On 7 March 1954, four troop trains were loaded at Wittenberg with tank units of the 6th Gds Tank Div. [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] it is believed, 25X1 that these units moved to the Werder - Markendorf area for combat firing practice. On 11 March 1954, the tank units returned from Justerbog to Wittenberg on the troop trains [redacted] [redacted] The information of the present report indicates, [redacted] that at least two of the four trains went to Brand. Between 26 February and about 1 March 1954, the areas of Brand and west of Brand have been used for field exercises by components of the 14th Gds Mech Div; on and after 10 March probably by components of the 9th Mech Div; and on and after 16 March, by tank units of the 7th Gds Tank Div. 25X1
6. Comment. The train probably was a hospital train. 25X1
7. Comment. The Frauenhain - Ortrand area between the Koenigsbrueck and Zeithain troop training grounds has been used by the First Gds Mech Army as training area during previous years. [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] 25X1
8. Comment. [redacted] in early March 1954, tank units and infantry units of the 9th Mech Div again arrived at Weisswasser for combat firing practice. The movement is confirmed by the troop train from Cottbus on 9 March 1954. A unit of the First Gds Mech Army apparently was also transported to Weisswasser. 25X1
9. Comment. The troop train probably carried a component of the 6th Gds AAA Div which, in early February 1954, went by road from Chemnitz to Koenigsbrueck. 25X1
